Pompeian Stone, Marble and Stone

Pompeian Stone is a composition that resembles gray Indiana Limestone in color, texture and durability. It is frost proof and will positively withstand the rigors of our American climate, howsoever severe.

The prices quoted in this catalogue are for Pompeian Stone and are F.O.B. New York. Prices on Sundials apply to pedestals only; dials are extra.

We make special designs and suggestions without charge and will be pleased to quote on them in Pompeian Stone or Marble. Quotations will also be furnished for any of the pieces in this catalogue in marble or stone if desired.

Our large catalogue No. 5, containing photographs of eleven hundred models including mantels of the various periods, will be mailed on receipt of 25 cents.

GARDEN FURNITURE fills a variety of needs. Its first use, of course, is in the open—in some nook or favored spot about your home, where its presence adds a charm, a touch of individuality, that cannot be realized without it. Garden Furniture is equally decorative and useful on the terrace or porch, in the foyer or sun parlor.

The formal garden depends upon stone garden ornaments for many of its effects. So, too, the beauty of the informal garden can be greatly enhanced by the use of a piece or two of ornament. A sundial in a broad stretch of lawn, a simple bench at the end of a pleasing vista, a bird bath rising from a bed of flowers give distinction that cannot be achieved through the use of flowers and shrubs alone.

The majority of pieces in our large collection are copies of masterpieces of garden ornament in the Museums and the world-famed gardens of Italy. Some were designed by leading American architects to fill special requirements.

On the following pages, we illustrate a few of the more popular designs in our collection. Try to visualize, if you can, how one or another of these pieces would look if placed in your garden. You will discover many unsuspected opportunities to beautify your home and its surroundings and to give both a fresh interest.

If you find nothing illustrated suited to your requirements, we would be very glad to submit special sketches for your approval.
